The steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, arriving at Southampton from New York, broke the record for the highest average speed across the ocean. Her hour speed was 22.35 knots.

A storm almost cyclonic in its violence has swept the shores of the British islands. Many shipwrecks are reported, some with loss of life. The Thames was rising at last accounts, flooding low lying houses and cellars below London bridge. Very rough weather is reported along the north coast of France.

Rev. James Legge, D. D., LL.
D., who was the first professor of Chinese language and literature at Oxford, is dead. He was a missionary to China in 1839, and returning home took the professorship in 1875.

The President of Peru cordially welcomed the Canadian Commissioner who is in South America seeking reciprocity and promoting a steamer line from Vancouver to Panama.

Lord Mount Stephen was married in London, a few days ago, to Miss Gian Tufnell, daughter of the late Commander R. G. Tuf-nell. A previous wife died last year. George Stephen was a leading banker of Montreal, who with other capitalists formed the syndicate that built the Canadian Pacific Railway. In token of his services in that regard, he was made a baronet and later raised to the British peerage with the title of Mount Stephen.

Germany and China.

Baron von Heywing, the German Minister's, demands on China are in substance the following:

The discovery and execution of the murderers of the missionaries, Nies and Heunle.

The punishment of the implicated officials, including the Governor of the Shantung province, in which part of China the mission was situated.

The reconstruction of the missionary buildings.

The payment of an indemnity of sixty thousand taels to the relatives of the victims.

The payment of a heavy indemnity to cover the expenses of the German naval expedition and the maintenance of the German force at Kiaochau bay.

The railroad monopoly of the Shantung province.

The occupation of Kiaochau bay as a German coal station.

China will refuse the demands of Germany, but will express her willingness to make ample reparation for the murder of the missionaries and for the damages done to the mission property.

Russia, it is understood, is not helping China, but the latter country has decided not to provoke hostilities and to trust to diplomacy for a settlement of the difficulties which have arisen in connection with the mission outrages.

British Appointments.

Sir Henry Arthur Blake, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of Jamaica since 1889, has been appointed Governor of Hongkong. Sir Augustus William Lawson Hemming, Governor of British Guiana, will succeed Sir Henry Blake and Sir Walter Joseph F. Sendall, High Commissioner for Cyprus since 1892, will succeed Sir Augustus Hemming.

Affairs of Cuba.

The steamer Dauntless left Jacksonville, Florida, on November 19, for Savannah, Georgia, with the schooner Jennie Thomas in tow. At the mouth of the St.
John's river the U. S. cruiser Vesuvius searched the Dauntless without finding anything wrong but neglected the schooner. This oversight is now declared to have been a blunder, for the schooner is said to have had a large cargo of war material for Cuba.

Captain General Blanco crashed in the bud the first overt act of the Weyler party against the policy of autonomy for Cuba.

The police raided a newspaper office and seized a large quantity
